Foreword

It is fitting that we of the Dynamo of Dixie, located as we are in the center of the South with its problems, take as our theme for this Dynamo that group of people known as Southerners.

The South, once a rural and independent region, is today passing through a painful and difficult period of transition from an age of distinct and comparatively isolated types to an age of social readjustment and better standards of living.

In the South the appearance of the Machine Age with its consequent industrialization has given rise to many grave problems, such as unemployment, decrease of the cotton market, tenancy, and soil erosion. The solution of these problems is of prime importance to every Southerner; and until a solution is found the New South cannot attain any degree of security and independence comparable to that held by the people of the Old South.

Dedication

We, the class of 1938, respectfully dedicate this, the twenty-sixth volume of the Dynamo, to one who, by his instruction in the classroom and by the example he sets as a gentleman, has constantly been a help and inspiration to us. During his years as treasurer of Chattanooga High School he has served us ably and zealously. Through his loyalty and efficiency he has earned the esteem not only of the students but also of the fellow members of the faculty.

In recognition of his splendid service and with a genuine personal affection, we dedicate the 1938 edition of the Dynamo to Mr. Walter P. Selcer.

Mr. Walter P. Selcer

The People of our School

A few seconds after the long-awaited bell shouts forth the magic words "three-five," the corridors are filled with the rising tide of anxious students . . . pouring in a constant stream through the doorway. Milling outward and drifting from the school into diverse paths, one finds interests demanded by other activities. For a long time, at least, throughts of school will be abandoned.

So, at the close of each year seniors desert the thresholds of their Alma Mater to feel the pulse of society in order to know its attractions. How apt are they to forget the memories of their cherished school! In the pressure of events about them, will they remember rushing out "to join the innumerable caravan which moves"?

Our exodus from the portals of C. H. S. . .

THE SCHOOL

The stately colonial mansion rising majestically in the shady groves of giant oaks stands today as a monument to an aristocratic but extinct class of Southerners, the old plantation owners.

Night and Day

When classes have been dispersed, the halls of C. H. S. seem deserted. Within many of the rooms, however, work continues . . . Times' Page Staff, Maroon and White, Dynamo, chapel practice, library work, program planning, play production, and the "infinite variety" of extra-curricular activities which City High affords.

Chattanooga High School is now completing three score years of service to Chattanooga and to this country. The first graduating class, that of 1879, consisted of five members, four of whom are still living. This year the graduating class has over three hundred sixty members. More than fifty-three hundred students have been graduated during these fifty-nine years, and many others have completed part or all of their secondary education at Chattanooga High School.

These alumni have gone forth to play their role in the drama of life. In peace, in war, in industry, in the professions—in all desirable activities—they have done and are doing their part—better, we believe, because of the training received in this school. During these years the student body and faculty have created and maintained a high standard of scholarship, of ideals, and of conduct. We are the stewards of this great heritage today—at a time when, from afar and even in our own country, ideas antipathetic of this Republic to the bed rock principles are being promulgated, and at a time when economic and social life is facing great perplexities.

I am sure that Chattanooga High School will do its part well in helping solve these problems and in making this a better country.

CREED F. BATES.

HISTORY OF SCHOOL

Chattanooga High School has made great steps in advancing from a one room building to the present modern plant. When founded and organized by Professor Wyatt, C. H. S. was located on the third floor of Second District School and graduated its first class in 1879. This class contained only five members, four of whom are still living.

The building now housing Dickinson Junior High School became the home of C. H. S. when the Second District School burned, and remained such until 1921, when new demands made it necessary for a new building, Wyatt Hall, to be erected. A greatly enlarged student body necessitated two new wings, which were begun in 1935 and completed in 1936. With our present facilities C. H. S. is today one of the most progressive high schools in the South.

SOUTHERN MOUNTAINS

We hail thee, Southern Mountains,
Nature's treasure stores!
Slumbering slopes of cloud-draped green,
Piled range on range, mist wrapped, against the sun—
A leaf-trimmed stairway, leading close to God—
What vistas do your heights command!
Verdant valleys, wide, and peaceful;
Quiet streams that slip away
From flower-decked gorges;
Green-fringed cliffs of fern-clad stone,
Swept by breezes spiced with
Laurel, rhododendron, meadow rue,
And fragile gentian;
Cool, green glens,
Where God's thoughts linger—
May He keep thy beauty ever thus
From man's destroying hand!

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1938

By Alex Radin

Well, Time does fly!

Two years, eight months, twenty days, and six and a half hours ago 674 sophomores for the first time trudged up the front steps of Chattanooga High School. Yet only yesterday it seems we came together for the first time as a sophomore class. And when we did, we won our first distinction. Everybody could say that we weren't the smartest class, and that maybe we weren't the best looking class; and some probably said that we weren't the most talented class. But after that first meeting everybody agreed on one thing—we were the danged noisiest class that ever entered the portals of Chattanooga High School. We had a class meeting and we let it be known for miles around. The town thought the Bronx Zoo had moved into the chapel of City High School as a side attraction of the Thursday evening wrestling matches, which were evidently being staged at High School.

Perhaps some of the clamor in the first meeting was made because of the Civil War being fought between Dickinson and North Chattanooga Junior High Schools. Dickinson promoted Charles Oliphant for president of the sophomore class, and North Chattanooga whooped up Forrest King. After a few close ballots, Charles Oliphant was declared president, and Forrest King took the consolation prize by being elected vice-president. After the storm subsided somewhat, La Fay Saulpaw was elected secretary; Ann Caudle, treasurer; and Mary Nell Ling, songleader. Miss Bessie Flo McGill, armed with "Cotton" Watts, pardon me, cotton wads, in her ears, lived through that now historic meeting as class sponsor.

One October morning Charles Oliphant, class president, took a hand in the ground-breaking for the new wings. Thanksgiving rolled around, and the sophomores had charge of the chapel program. David Shavin, and his sister, Senior Dora, wrote and presented a Thanksgiving play. In quick succession Charleyne won honors Stunt Nite in the "Firefly"; and we found ourselves $5.00 to the good for selling the most tickets to Stunt Nite. In February Cleo Collins won the Chattanooga Times Five Mile Race.

The year was climaxed when we presented Sam Smartt with the Sophomore Achievement Award, and time grew near for the election of officers for our junior year: Sponsor, Miss Bessie Flo McGill; president, Charles Oliphant; vice-president, Mary Nell Ling; secretary, Margaret Kelly; and treasurer, La Fay Saulpaw.

In our junior year we were again hoping to gain our laurels in the sporting world by having a member of our class win the Times Five Mile Race. We banked heavily on two strong contenders, Bob Frost and Joe "Tiger Man" Adkins. When the boys were coming down the home stretch a tense crowd waited. Although Bob didn't come in first, he did come in third, while Joe, the "Tiger Man", rolled along in L. D. Miller's car.

On Friday evening, May 7, 1937, our class gave its second play, a Watts' production entitled "Fly Away Home." The cast included George Warren, Dorothy Price, La Fay Saulpaw, Ralph Williams, Ida May Trupin, Mary Nell Ling, Bob Olson, Reavis Roberts, Jim Austin, Flora Belle Morris, Richard Howes, Winston Gonia, and Margaret Hon. The business manager, by the way, was Walter Wooten.

One day at assembly Miss Annetta Trimble appeared on the platform. Twelve juniors were to be escorted to the stage as National Honor Society nominees. After quite a bit of anxiety, the old members finally, one by one, brought the faculty-chosen nominees to the stage. Their teeth chattering like a Tommy gun, those brought were James Alexander, Nellie Ruth Day, Martha Dillard, Margaret Fain, Nat Kaderly, Margaret Kelly, Louise Massey, Charles Oliphant, Alex Radin, Ruth Whittenburg, Margaret Wilson, and Walter Wooten. When Nellie Ruth Day's hair almost caught fire in the candle procession, she didn't care. "Shucks, I'd even gain two pounds to be elected into the Honor Society," Nellie said.

The last edition of the Maroon and White brought forth many comments as to its improvement. David Shavin was editor, and Reavis Roberts, business manager. The paper had been enlarged and in its content was comparable in some measure to a metropolitan newspaper.

At the end of that year, Charles Oliphant was elected senior class president; Miss Bessie Flo McGill was chosen sponsor; Ralph Williams, vice-president; Margaret Kelly, secretary; and Nellie Ruth Day, treasurer.

In the fall of '37 we entered our senior year. Walter Wooten, master politician, took over his duties as president of Student Council, which position automatically made him president of the student body; and James Miller took over the duties of vice-president, while James Alexander became treasurer; and Martha Dillard, secretary. In the R. O. T. C. unit, Jack Wright, whose favorite cheer is "hip, hip, hooray" was made Lieutenant-Colonel, and Reavis Roberts strutted as Major. When Christmas dropped in for a visit, the class lapsed into second childhood and played host to the Vine Street Orphans at their Christmas party.

After the City-Central game, Jack Whitehead and Bob Bales found that they were All-City footballers for their good all-season playing. Efford Norris, who at time of writing is still a member of the senior class, was made All-City basketballer.

The seniors gave "Spring Dance" for their annual play. Perhaps I'd better not mention more about this event, because many of the teachers were tempted to use some of the language used in the play to describe "Spring Dance." And Pat, faithful janitor, now retired, heard the play and immediately afterward thought it best to destroy the script. By mistake, however, he destroyed all the programs, and therefore I cannot give you the exact date of the performance. However, the play left such an impression, that particularly Mary Louise Clift and Alfred Eatherly, who played the leads, can't be forgotten.

After the mocking burlesque and gaiety of Senior Day, after the Junior-Senior Prom and the picnic comes Class Day. We have just about completed our sojourn at Chattanooga High School—about two years, eight months, twenty days, and six and a half hours, if you please. Someone will no doubt say, "Oh, we'll never forget that class—the Class of 1938." Next year, at this very same time, others will occupy our places; but we shall remember the time we have spent in old High School. There are incidents that have happened here which we will remember the rest of our days—little insignificant happenings that somehow seem to fasten themselves into our memories. Friends and knowledge we have gained, will, like other pleasant remembrances, live with us always.

The Class of 1938 is grateful to Chattanooga High School; we have taken much from it, and we shall give in return our love and gratitude.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

By Nellie Ruth Day

Third Saturday in June, 1948.

Dear Diary:

Today was the most pleasing interlude I've spent since the good old high school days. Need I tell you I attended the Class of '38's reunion held at Wyatt Hall? It was certainly a treat for sore eyes to see my classmates and the school building itself. Diary, you'd be surprised at some of the things that the old gang are doing.

The Ellis girls—Fofo, Asimo G., Asimo V., Helen, and Sara—have finally decided that it's high time for them to be known as one family instead of as a group of individuals. Hence, they have formed a basketball team and are playing boys' teams according to boys' rules, and winning most of their games at that!

Quite a few of the old class have gone into newspaper work. Robert Donaldson, the neglected Romeo of '38, is writing a column on advice to the lovelorn. Such an occupation caused him to be the man of the hour. I saw him surrounded by a bevy of distressed maidens, seeking his safe advice. Among them I recognized Anne Jackson, Betty Williamson, Helen Culberson, and Mildred Kelso. Another of our classmates who answered a journalistic call is Joe "Tiger" Adkins. Joe now writes a comic strip called "Mazie, the Foo-Pitcher, and Her Pals." Joe told me that he got his inspiration from Annie Beth Lea who, in her high school days, had such coy ways in the presence of John Lee, Hager Odom, and Oscar Davis. Gloria Miller and her "nose for sweeping news" were there gathering dirt for her scandal sheet called "Sadie's Sob Story."

Mae Carpenter's absence was quite noticeable, but Herbert Dent, who is corresponding with her, explained that Mae is doing missionary work in darkest Africa. Bud Thaxton couldn't attend, either, but he certainly is up on top. At present Bud is engaged in a flag pole sitting contest.

Luckily, the Barrick and Rose Circus was in Chattanooga during the reunion. This fact permitted three more classmates to be present. One was Charles Smith, who is with the circus as lion tamer; Elizabeth Corbin, now a bareback rider with this unit; Harry Mattice, the fair-haired Adonis, was inquiring as to where he could get a marcelle. Naturally, I recommended the Ruth Smoot Beauty Shop.

Another classmate who has pursued a more serious profession is Joe Coplan, now a famous lawyer. Such a great lawyer is he that he means nothing he says. Only his secretary, Miriam Landress, could interpret his meaning to us.

Someone turned on a special Kenneth Hood constructed radio. The first thing he heard was the voice of the long-winded politician, Reavis Roberts, in a campaign speech. Everyone wanted to turn the radio off, but Roberts was just closing his speech; so we decided to listen a while longer. Announcer Robert Simmons stated that he had just heard that the flying Newtons, lost in the fog for twenty-four hours, were reported as headed for Chattanooga. Their pilot, Barbara Cross, stated that Mrs. Newton, to whom she referred as Ozzie, was airsick and was quite ready to land in the football field back of C. H. S.

The reunion did not lag. We were entertained by two classmates who have become adagio dancers. They were none other than La Fay Saulpaw and Leo Mennen. After the dance, we enjoyed a play given by a Shakespearean troupe, among whom were Mary Louise Clift, Dorothy Price, Virginia Thatcher, and Martha Dillard. In the play Nat Kaderly tried to tame Bette Jane Fisher, as if Nat could tame anyone! The only one really suitable for the part is Keith Simmons.

The two funniest people I saw were Jim Austin and Charles Oliphant. Jim owns a men's haberdashery, and he really believes in advertising his merchandise. In his green and gray-checked suit, tilted derby, spats and cane, Jim was stunning. Charles was worrying everyone to buy some Octivory soap, in order that he might save enough coupons to send for a special autographed portrait of the glamorous movie star, Jayne Shutting.

Several of our classmates have become connected with the law enforcing side of our government. L. D. Miller has a pull with the judicial department. Mrs. Miller, once known as Mary Guy Evans, averages three traffic tickets a week. Three policemen, David Wright, Ralph Williams, and Jack Gwillim had all they could do to keep the two rival prima donnas, Fern Beckert and Kathryn King, from starting a riot. Even their understudies, Anne Caudle and Betty Easterly, were ready to enter into the spirit of the brawl. Bill Palmer, janitor at C. H. S., helped quiet these last two. Remember, Diary, he always did have a way with the women; but Palmer started running, though, when he saw Jimmy Miller, the tax collector, headed his way.

We almost had another brawl between the Jacks—Whitehead and Wright: Whitehead has another semester in high school, but he thought that since he was once a member of the Class of '38, he had a right to attend the reunion. Mr. Wright. however, thought it best to take advantage of the opportunity of catching Mr. Whitehead for skipping school last November. Jack Wright, you see, is now truant officer; and this is the first chance he's had to catch up with the elusive Mr. Whitehead.

It's a good thing that Walter Wooten started his charm school. Otherwise, Efford Norris, George Hamill, Ray Lykins, Billy Prigmore, and Harold Phelps wouldn't have known how to sip their punch a la Emily Post if the professor hadn't trained them. The punch was terrible. No wonder, Howard Van Zant made it. And the cakes! Someone turned Jimmy Alexander loose with the fancy icing, and consequently the cakes were so over-decorated that they were scarcely edible. I was advised to go to the "Greasy Skillet" to eat, but the crowd was too dense. Betty Ruth Austin barked orders in that staccato voice she acquired as gym major at C. H. S. It seemed as if I would never be served, so I drove on to the Meyer Hasden Tea Shoppe.

Well, Diary, now I'm home and my guests, Louise Massey and Betty Jordan, are yelling for me to turn out the light so that they can go to sleep. Betty is really ready for dreams after that telephone conversation with handsome Dr. John Mighton. I'm sort of sleepy myself, Diary. Don't worry, you haven't heard all you're going to about that Class of '38.

Oooops! I gotta stop now. Betty is threatening to turn off the lamp—and there it goes — — —

WE BEQUEATH

By Joseph Coplan

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred thirty-eight, of Chattanooga High School, of Hamilton County, Tennessee; being of feeble minds and deteriorating bodies, aware of the uncertainty of life, realizing that the end is near, we hope, do make, and publish this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by us at any time.

ITEM I

To the institution, that has really been our benefactor, we bequeath our highest esteem, regard, and our children unto the third and fourth generations.

ITEM II

To the faculty that has endured us, we leave our love, honor, and respect, with hopes for rest and peace.

ITEM III

We bequeath to our sponsor, Miss Bessie Flo McGill, who has been our guiding star through "thick and thin," our love and affection. "Thanks a Million."

ITEM IV

Our tactfulness, our sincerity, our initiative, our superb mentalities, our Hollywood profiles, and our charming personalities, we submit to the juniors. If any "big heads" result, however, this provision shall be revoked.

ITEM V

To the sophomores, we will our fondest hopes of becoming seniors.

ITEM VI

Charles Oliphant's leadership and pleasing personality, we, by their request, confer upon Franz Zeigler and Seymore Frumin.

ITEM VII

The intellectual brilliancy of Willie Ruth Whittenburg and Elizabeth Corbin is left to anyone who is capable of assuming such responsibility.

ITEM VIII

Margaret Kelly's love for the opposite sex, we will to Mary Ellen Burton.

ITEM IX

The "he" man of C. H. S., Charles (Butch) Smith, surrenders his masculine physique to that termite, Jerry Orkin.

ITEM X

The timidity and shyness of Shirley Ann Jacobs, we leave to Sarah Gordon, realizing that "30 Gordons" could work up a storm.

ITEM XI

The self-esteem of Wheeler Conkling, we divide equitably among Dick Whitmore, Lester Bowden, Bob Turnbull, and any other half dozen timid undergraduates.

ITEM XII

Nellie Ruth Day's humor and Reavis Roberts' wit, we bequeath to Mr. Bates for safe keeping until new wise-crackers come along.

ITEM XIII

Bob Frost's pugilistic ability, we bestow upon Willard Travis, who has already won fame as "the teachers' pet." May he rest in peace.

XIV

The disposition of Nell Louise Longley, that has earned for her the appellation of "Sweetie", we graciously pass on to Mrs. Whips.

ITEM XV

Rex Conley leaves Chattanooga High School. That is his will.

ITEM XVI

David Shavin and Alex Radin bequeath their journalistic talents to Barney Brody; may they not cause him to do the same as Steve; namely, to jump off Brooklyn bridge.

ITEM XVII

The terpsichorean "rushin's" of Mary Nell Ling and Jayne Shutting, we submit to Lillian Shutting and Bobby McConnell, Stalin permitting.

ITEM XVIII

"Tilly" Thompson passes on his "Bull Dog" instincts to Mac Davis.

ITEM XIX

To all future dancing prodigies, we will the gracefulness of Helen Jones and Charleyne Guedron.

ITEM XX

The "inferiority complex" of Charles Scott, we give up hesitatingly. Here's hoping that Billy Fritts and "Re" Mark Spector can fill his shoes.

ITEM XXI

Woodrow Wilson relinquishes his delightful singing voice to his most ardent rival, J. B. Bass.

ITEM XXII

We bequeath to Major McMillan and Sergeant Proctor our sincerest wishes for an army with more privates than officers.

ITEM XXIII

The class attorney wills his sincerest apologies to those whose dignity he has unintentionally vexed, and as a consolation.

ITEM XXIV

To make sure that this act shall be declared unconstitutional, we hereby nominate and appoint as the sole executor of this our last will and testament, President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

In witness, whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 31st day of May, 1938, A. D.

(Signed) Joseph Coplan, Class Attorney.

Signed by the said Joseph Coplan for the Class of 1938 as and for their last will and testament in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at his request, and in his sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses the day and date above written.

As the proud doors of C. H. S. swung open to initiate a new term of education, some four hundred juniors stood with dazzling eyes and glorified hearts to think of their "struggling days" as sophomores, bewildered by the immense halls and long-legged students. Yes, the day had come when we were able to stand with outstretched arms calling "little sophies" to ask them how they felt surrounded by "all these men and women." Our maturity and "guiding ability", however, were only the results of many days when we, too, were terrifically heckled.

To seek talent for the various junior projects was our first step in class organization. Talent was wanted; talent was received. With Jane Meyer as editor-in-chief of The Maroon and White, a major junior project, news has been plentiful as well as interesting. Yes, in Robert Burgner, "Boots" Brockett, Ruth Keyes, Betty Cartwright, Mildred Lee, Tom De Rossett, Jane Meyer, Charles Ward, and Franz Ziegler was found sufficient talent to help make the junior play, Growing Pains, a tremendous success. Such musical and dancing talent as possessed by Bobbie Ruth Borin, Madolyn Wilkerson, Ruth Keyes, and Virginia Weitzner helped to make the junior stunt and Stunt Nite most entertaining.

Perhaps most important on the lips and in the hearts of all juniors is the ever-glorious Junior-Senior Prom. If the students were ever deprived of this event, the school term would be similar to steak without French-fried potatoes.

Other social activities of the class were stagettes (one honoring the Baylor cadets) and a most successful junior party.

Now as juniors we are climbing the hill of life with each day bringing us closer and closer to the top of the hill, the end of our schooling, when we shall stand dazed desiring to go on into this exciting world, but yearning to turn back and tread once again the satin-lined hill which we climbed at C. H. S.

As nature donned her autumnal colors, the doors of C. H. S. swung open to greet the class of '40. With a new school, a new plan, and many new contacts in store, life seemed to have taken on new zeal.

A light unto their path was Miss Margaret Decker, for without her guidance the way would have been dark.

Guides, in the form of handbooks, proved helpful in aiding the new "sophs" around their new home.

As always falls the lot of the baby class, a Thanksgiving program was given. Junior Van Vleet served the class as chairman of the ticket selling committee for the City-Central game. In addition, the sophomores entertained the class of '41 with a chapel program and a tour through the building.

Every Sophomore has his day.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Membership in Student Council is one of the most desired and outstanding honors bestowed upon students at C. H. S.

This representative body consists of one member from each homeroom, the presidents of the three classes, the editors-in-chief and business managers of the school publications, the student marshal, and the cadet commander of the R. O. T. C. unit.

Among the functions of the Student Council are making announcements in homeroom, operating the Lost and Found department, and selecting subjects for forum discussions.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is probably the most cherished honor that any high school student receives. Selection for membership is based on the faculty vote on points of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Only members of the upper third of the senior class are eligible for membership.

C. H. S.'s chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1924 by Dr. Annetta Trimble and was the first in this section of the country. Dr. Trimble has always been an inspiration and guide to the society.

Seniors taken in at the end of the year were: Mary Alice Hamrick, Mary Katherine Long, Elsie Louise Sterne, and Raymond Weitzner.

BANKERS' CLUB

Under the able guidance of its sponsors, Mr. W. P. Selcer, and Mr. Sam D. Harris, and its motto of service, the Bankers' Club operates the school bookstore. Here all school supplies are sold, deposits on accounts are received, and a Savings Bank is operated. Car ticket requisitions are issued, also, for the convenience of the students.

For entertainment the club has several traditional entertainments every year, these being a luncheon at which pins for service are presented and a chapel program following; a banquet followed by a theatre party; and a picnic on the last Friday of the school year.

MAROON

Counting sheep these sleepless nights is not so bad as the torture endured by the Maroon and White executives as they lie in bed and count those empty columns which they visualize in the next week's paper.

"Articles in by Monday . . . poor paragraph . . . rewrite . . . article not long enough . . . break up the conversation," and finally "We don't have enough copy to fill the paper." Worry, worry, worry!

All work, no play? No, the pleasure derived from a well-written article is sufficient payment for the mere minutes in developing a story.

AND WHITE

Ads, ads, more ads! Why business managers grow gray . . . Collection of ads, especially when the collectors are bitten by the "big apple" bug . . . Reorganization of business staff; some heads chopped off! Harmony for a time!

Subscriptions, subscriptions, more subscriptions! Money is needed to finance the big undertaking. Subscriptions come slowly. Business improves. Depression or recession is on the wane. Aim—a Maroon and White in the hands of every C. H. S. student.

"Who's Who at City", a weekly column featuring some outstanding senior, is the main project of the Times Page Staff. Leading members of this literary group are selected to write this column because of ability and originality. In addition to this column, all important news of school affairs is published each week in the Chattanooga Times after it has been prepared and typed by the club members.

Following the plan of group contests introduced several years ago by Miss Josephine Hamilton, the sponsor, great interest was shown in preparation of the weekly articles. These articles cover club work, class work, and any special or important event that occurs during the week.

Members of the stage crew, the Bull Dogs, belong to one of the oldest and one of the most active organizations at High School. The club originated almost ten years ago under the direction of "Chief Bull Dog" Bender, and it has over one hundred twenty-five among its alumni. Any earnest boy who will make good records and keep up the standards is eligible for membership.

This organization is represented in the Student Council and meets as a homeroom. It handles all stage work including curtains, scenery, and sound effects during chapel programs, plays, and night performances.

SPRING DANCE

Directed by Charles B. Watts

Merry, ringing laughter filled the air on the tenth of December when the senior class presented Philip Barry's Spring Dance, a comedy concerning the hilarious experiences of five boarding school girls and their dates for the annual spring prom.

The plot revolves about the love affair of Alex Benson (Mary Louise Clift) and Sam Thatcher (Alfred Eatherly), a young man who is determined to go globe trotting to Russia.

Although the night wind howled and flurries of snow added a touch of discomfort on the outside, all was warm, merry, and joyous within the auditorium during the entire program.

GROWING PAINS

Directed by Charles B. Watts

All the little birds that have their nests on the roof of Wyatt Hall found themselves without a home when the joyous laughter, caused by the comedy of "Growing Pains", raised the roof. That McIntyre family, portrayed by Mildred Lee and Bob Burgner, the parents; and Jane Meyer and Charles Ward, the children, was truly a great success with the fun-loving audience. In the supporting cast were: Betty Reed, who took the role of Mrs. Patterson, a large, aggressive woman with a determined jaw; Sara Gordon, who interpreted Elsie Patterson, a gangling, awkward character; Ruth Keyes, who took the difficult role of Prudence Darling, a petite, pretty girl, several years older than the other girls in manner and self-possession; Tom De Rossett, who acted as the delivery boy; Helen Trupin, D. D. Coleman, George Warren, Bob Turnbull, Willard Travis, Betty Cartwright, "Boots" Brockett, Mary Ellen Burton, and Mary Lou Carrick, who were the high school companions of the McIntyre children.

"Growing Pains", which was written by Aurania Rouverol, has enjoyed several profitable seasons in New York at the Ambassador Theater. The success of the junior class production added another lovely bouquet to the laurels of the hilarious comedy.

SANTA VISITS ORPHANS

Johnny, have you been a good little boy?

Shimmering silvery stars! Rich brown puddings! Light-footed airy fairies! Bright winking candles! All were present when Bobby and his sister and grandfather were playing "make believe" on the program given for children from the Vine Street Orphanage.

Santa did get there with his pack of joy giving gifts and sweet candies and fruits. Keen light shone in those happy little faces as their owners grasped the lovely dolls, and woolly dogs, paint books, airplanes, trucks, and wagons.

Despite the falling rain and puddles that graced the streets those eighty-seven children showed the greatest thanks in their glistening eyes as they said, "Thank you, Santa."

All hail, the King and Queen!

IN THE MERRIE MONTH OF MAY

King and Queen
Maid of Honor and Escort

To climax the year's work the gym classes presented the annual May Day performance on April 29. On a flower bedecked throne were seated the king and queen, L. D. Miller and Mary Nell Ling, surrounded by twenty ladies-in-waiting, the maid of honor, Margaret Kelly and her escort, Reavis Roberts, and the gym captains and their sponsors. Among the high-lights of the program were a toe dance and the crowning of the king and queen by Norma Jane Holt, a toe tap by Dorothy Peaslack, and an acrobatic dance by Jean Thomas.

MUSIC

" . . . Music floods the ear"

Among the most popular organizations in our music department are the woodwind quintet, the string ensemble, and the trio.

A symphony orchestra approaching complete instrumentation is maintained at Chattanooga High School under the direction of Miss Mary Ruth Hall. The orchestra gives concerts outside of school as well as for many of the entertainments given in the school auditorium. Former members and some present members of the orchestra play in the Chattanooga Civic Symphony and hold leading places in musical circles of other cities. The orchestra is always well represented in the East Tennessee Orchestra which plays in Knoxville for the East Tennessee Teachers Association each year.

There are also two glee clubs, one for boys and one for girls. These clubs give many performances during the year at school as well as in public.

To make each member intimate with Shakespeare and his writings is the aim of the Shakespeare Club. In order to do this, the club sponsors the Avon Shakespeare Players in their annual production of two of Shakespeare's plays. The club studies several of the plays annually, and chooses one which they produce as near to Shakespeare's birthday as possible. Following an established custom, the old members have a tea in honor of the newly elected ones.

OFFICERS

Katherine Smotherman	President
Mildred White	Vice-President
Mildred Wilkerson	Secretary
Mary Frances Robertson	Treasurer
Mrs. Ronald K. Hudgins	Sponsor

Because of the great number of Sophomores interested in the Girl Reserves, the club had to be divided into two groups so that the club could meet in the classroom.

The club holds as its chief aim the purposes of the Y. W. C. A., which lead to a highly developed Christian personality. Among these purposes are purity in speech and thought, service to the public, and health betterment.

JUNIOR GIRL RESERVES

OFFICERS

Sara Camp	Treasurer
Miss Katherine Perry	Sponsor

"To face life squarely, to find and give the best" is the motto and purpose of the Junior-Senior Girls' Hi-Y.

As a signal for starting, the club held a recognition service for old and new members, closely followed by the city-wide recognition service and the Girl Reserves' Mother and Daughter Banquet in which the Hi-Y was asked to participate. In trying to "give the best", representatives of the club visited the Bethlehem Community Center and took Santa and all his toys to visit the little Negro children in their home.

ART CLUB

OFFICERS

Fred Dewey	President
Helen Murphy	Vice-President
Annie Beth Lea	Secretary and Treasurer
Miss Emma Owens	Sponsor

Twice each month throughout the year the Art Club gathers under the supervision of Miss Emma Owens to discuss artists and their works. Carefully planned programs, which often include a special guest speaker, bring a deeper appreciation of art to the members.

This year an electric kiln for use in the pottery room was procured for class use. Now the art pupils are taught to construct, glaze, stack, and fire their own pottery. In addition to the pottery work painting from objects, casts, and life is studied.

OFFICERS

L. F. Rose, Jr.	President
R. C. Barrick	Vice-President
Bernice Thomas	Secretary
Nancy Newman	Treasurer
Mrs. C. V. Swearingen	Sponsor

To create an interest in artistic typewriting and to use the various parts of the machine in making designs are the fascinating projects for the members of the Typing Club. Membership in the organization requires at least one year of typing.

At each meeting a program is given by a different group of people. The group presenting the best program of the year is entertained by the other members of the club. On these programs there are many interesting and unique activities, such as demonstrations, typewritten pictures, and games on the typewriter.

OFFICERS' CLUB

OFFICERS

Cadet Lieutenant-Colonel Jack Wright	President
Cadet Captain Bernard Love	Vice-President
Cadet Captain Tilman Thompson	Secretary
Cadet Major Reavis Roberts	Treasurer
Cadet Captain Clay Aytes	Sergeant-at-Arms
Major Douglas McMillin	Sponsor

Membership in the Officers' Club of Chattanooga High School is limited to the commissioned cadet officers of the R. O. T. C. unit. This club is organized for the purpose of maintaining a better R. O. T. C. unit and entertaining the club members.

Bi-weekly club programs were made up of teachings in discipline, courtesy, and co-operation.

As for the social life . . . the Officers' Club proved with its swinging, shagging, swaying dances that, as ever, "there's something about a soldier."

SERGEANTS' CLUB

OFFICERS

Lester Bowden	President
John Mighton	Vice-President
Eugene Davis	Secretary
Bill Cambron	Treasurer
Bill Logan	Sergeant-at-Arms
Miss Katherine Wilkey	Sponsor

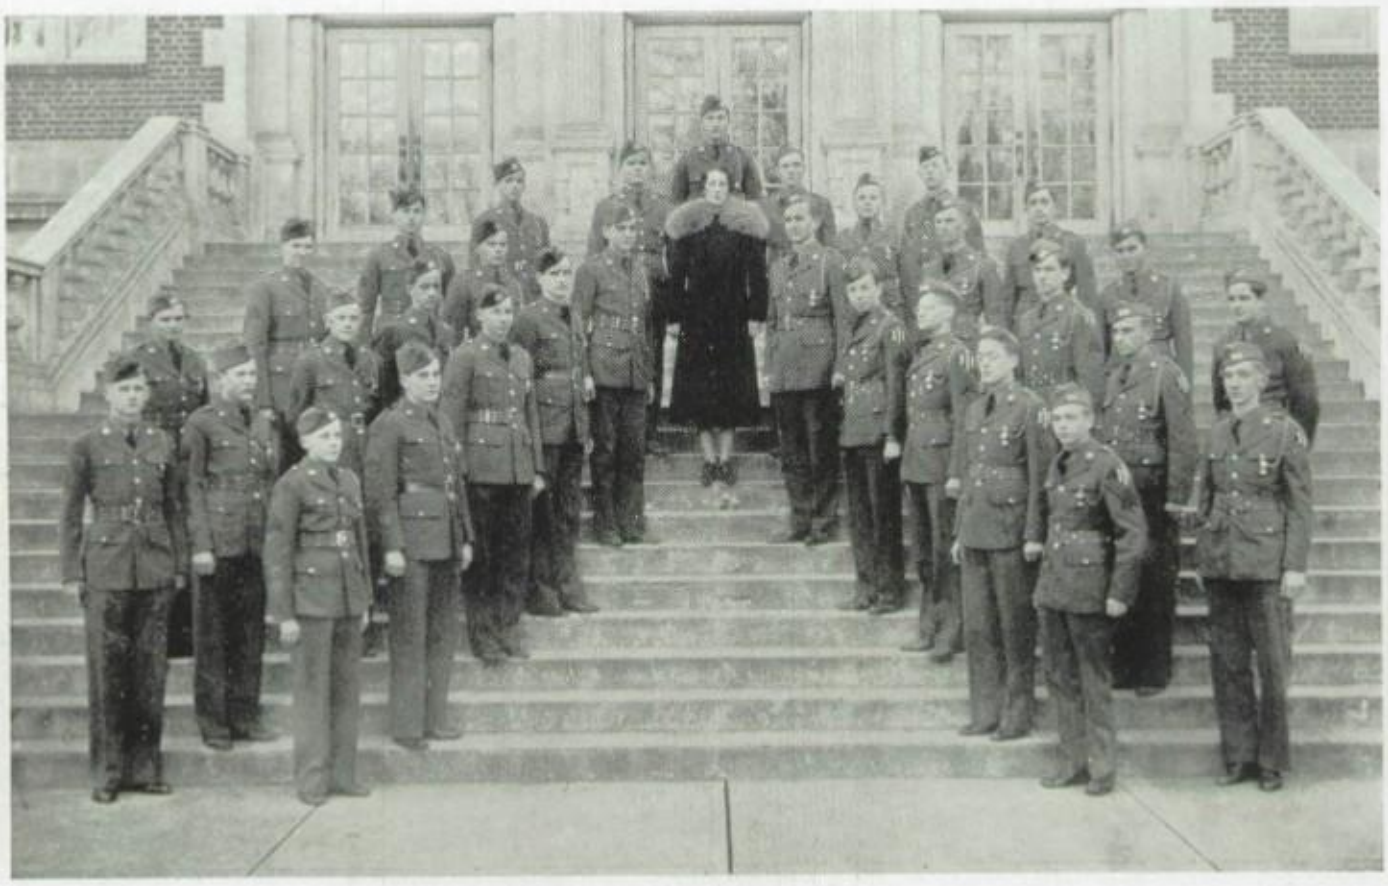
Organized in an attempt to promote social and educational activities among the Sergeants of the R. O. T. C. unit of C. H. S., the Sergeants' Club functions under the leadership of Miss Katherine Wilkey.

Major D. N. McMillin and various cadet officers give talks at the bi-weekly meetings.

The main event of the year is the Sergeants' Club dance given to raise funds for the carrying on of the club work.



CITIZENSHIP CLUB

OFFICERS

Tom De Rossett	President
Paul Huggins	Vice-President
Russell Young	Secretary
Howard Dixon	Treasurer
Mr. A. B. Robertson	Sponsor

Organized in an effort to increase the student's understanding of current problems and logical solutions for these problems, the Citizenship Club is endeavoring to promote better citizenship among students both in school and in civic life. Educational programs were given in the hope that every student might become interested in current affairs. These programs included guest speakers, talks, and dramatization of important events.

NATURE CLUB

OFFICERS

Norman Covington	President
Carol Murphy	Secretary-Treasurer
Catherine Dent	Program Chairman
Mildred Atchley	Chairman of Plant Group
Billy Bright	Chairman of Microscopic Group
Annette Broom	Chairman of Insect Group
Mr. Hugh C. Clabough	Sponsor

To obtain knowledge of nature which cannot be acquired in the biology class is the purpose of the Nature Club. The club membership is divided into three groups according to the members' respective interests, namely: plant, insect, and microscopic. The insect and plant groups collect and mount material to be added to the museum which was started by the club of '37. The microscopic group prepares slides to be used in the biology classes.

SCIENCE CLUB

OFFICERS

John Lee	President
William Lasater	Vice-President
Richard Hughes	Secretary-Treasurer
Mrs. Jean Sweetland	Sponsor

Students interested in science as a profession or a hobby find a channel for their thought in the Science Club. As a special project the group adopted a plan for building a barometer for the physics laboratory. Aside from this work, interest was shown in the information on scientific subjects added by guest speakers who were representative of industry and professions of the South.

THE RADIO CLUB

OFFICERS

Bill Palmer	President
Cecil Bond	Vice-President
Alan Horton	Secretary
Harold Manning	Treasurer
Mr. Alexander Lee	Sponsor

Included in the two-fold purpose of the Radio Club is its attempt to increase the interest in amatuer radio and to further the development of the hobby by offering to boys interested in short-wave radio the opportunity to learn much about it and to get a start in the actual use of their knowledge. The club uses as a guide and textbook The Radio Amateur's Handbook published by The American Radio Relay League. During Club meetings small receiving sets are constructed under the supervision of the more experienced members of the group.

Another purpose of the club is to maintain and operate the school's public address system. This device aids the acoustics of the auditorium and provides a recording system for music and voice. The group was influential in promoting the broadcast of school programs over Station WAPO.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

OFFICERS

Anne Jackson	President
Mary Nell Ling	Vice-President
Betty Williamson	Secretary
Betty Cartwright	Treasurer
Miss Nina F. Parks	Sponsor

To diversify the benefits received from a course in home economics is the aim of the Home Economics Club. Included in the activities were: Mrs. Bickers' interesting demonstration, "How to Appy Make-Up", Miss Haley's instruction, "The Vocation for a Home Economics Trained Girl", and practice in modeling clothes.

Maintaining order in the halls throughout the school day is the chief purpose of the G. Y. M. Members of the organization are stationed at various places in the halls during each period of the day in order that they may serve effectively. Besides keeping order, the G. Y. M. girl courteously escorts a visitor wherever he wants to go, and she also runs errands for the office and tries to give courteous and cheerful service wherever possible.

Ruth Pittman	Treasurer
Mr. Wendell Hudson	Sponsor

That every student at C. H. S. has at some time been indebted to the Kitchen Patrol for assistance in the cafeteria verifies the importance of this organization. The duties of the club are many: the most important are to assist students in the cafeteria, to prevent congestion in the lunch lines, and in general to keep order during the lunch hour. The members are elected to their posts by popular vote on points of dependability and leadership.

The main project of this year's club was to encourage students to leave the tables clean by returning their trays. The drive was successful and cafeteria conditions improved greatly because of the efforts of the club and the full cooperation of the students and faculty.

ALMA MATER

Now, forward, we go to the fight
While proud waves our banner above,
For purity gleams from its white,
And maroon stands for power and love.
Now hope points us onward to life
While proud voices blend in happy chorus:
Conquerors we in each strife
For C. H. S., for C. H. S., we'll be victorious.

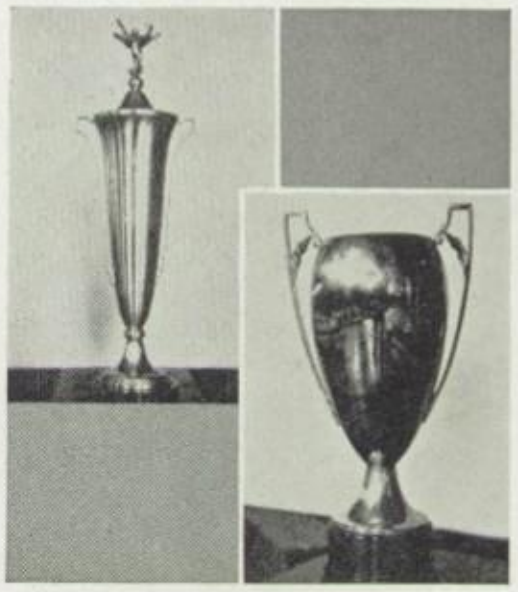
BEST PLATOON OF 1938

SECOND PLATOON, COMPANY C

Commanding Officer

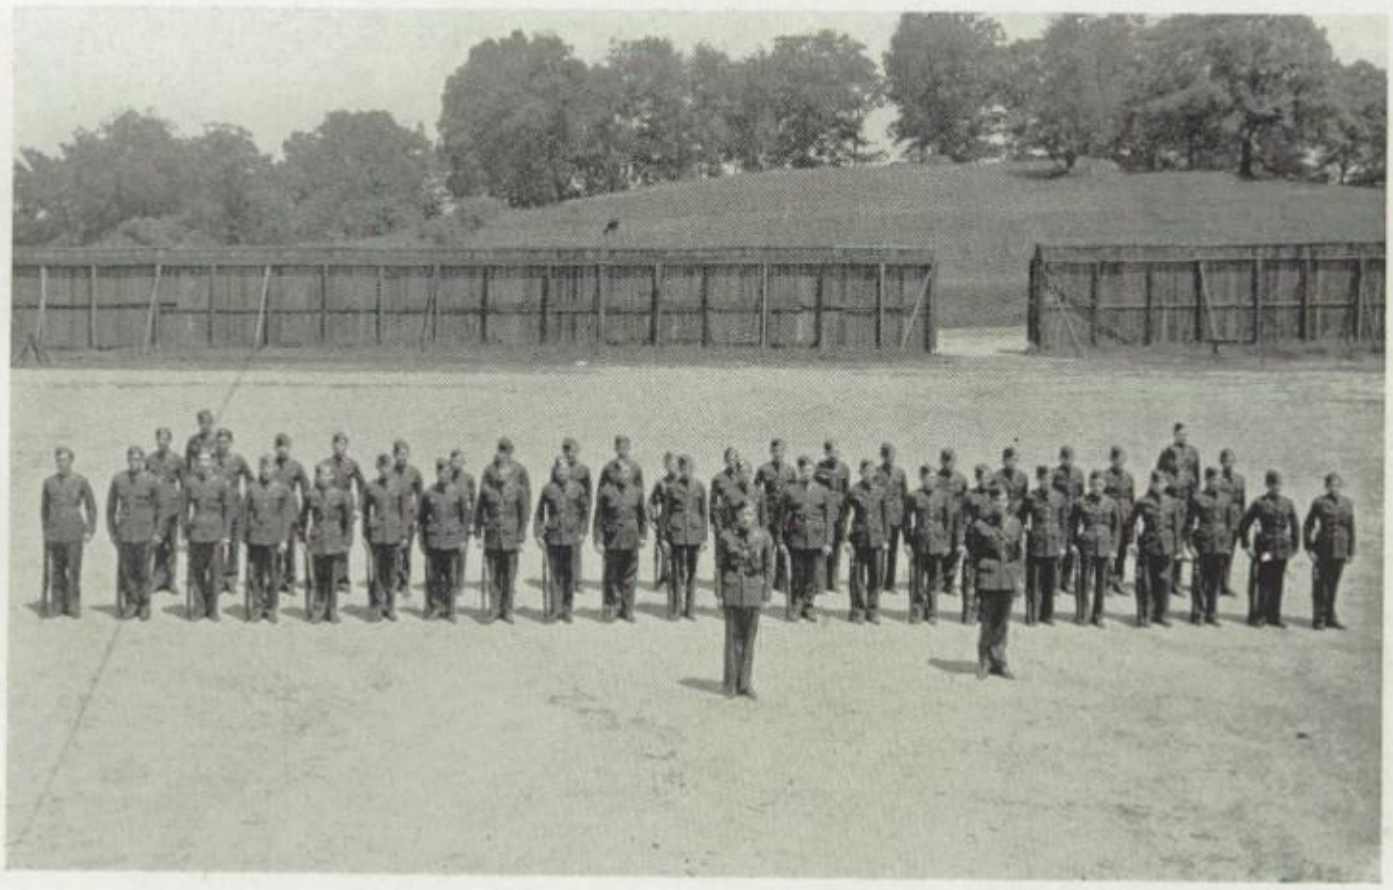
First Lieutenant Charles Oliphant



Military Trophies

The Senior Class of 1931 awarded a Loving Cup for the best R. O. T. C. company. Each year since that date the name of the captain commanding the winning company has been engraved on the cup. This year the winning company was Company "C" commanded by Captain Bernard Love.

To each year's best platoon is awarded the Colonel James E. Ware Trophy. This year the cup was awarded to the Second Platoon of Company "C" of which First Lieutenant Charles Oliphant is commander.



SCHOOL SONGS

WE'RE EVER LOYAL

We're ever loyal to dear old High School,
And we love our Maroon and White.
It is a power, stands like a tower
To defend with all our might.
We've got the spirit, that High School Spirit,
And we'll love and fight for you.
We're going to win this game,
We'll Fight! Fight! Fight! High School for you.

HLGH SCHOOL WE LOVE YOU

High School we love you and we know you're the best,
We wouldn't give the best of all the rest,
We love your colors the Maroon and White,
We love the way that you go out and fight.
We love you true, and we love only you,
High School we love you best of all.

OUR BOYS WILL SHINE TONIGHT

Our boys will shine tonight,
Our boys will shine;
They'll shine in glory bright
All down the line.
We'll get old ..... goat.
That will be fine.
When the sun goes down
And the moon comes up,
Our boys will shine.

W. AND L. SWING

For when those High School warriors fall in line,
We're going to win this game another time.
For when old High School's team has got the ball
We'll be the champions again this fall, this fall.
We're going to fight, fight, fight for every yard.
We'll circle end and hit that line so hard.
We're going to roll old .....
In the sod, in the sod, C. H. S.
(Repeat)

CHEER, BOYS, CHEER

(Tune: "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old
Town Tonight.")
Cheer, boys, cheer, old High School's got the
ball;
Hit that line, there'll be no line at all;
And when we win this game, we'll play no more
this fall.
There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight
Rah! Rah! Rah!
(Repeat.)

YEA MAROON! YEA WHITE!

Yea Maroon! Yea White!
Come on High School,
Let's fight!

HIT 'EM HARD

Hit 'em hard, hit 'em low,
Yea team, let's go!
(Repeat.)

CHATTANOOGA

(Swaying from right to left)
C-H-A-T-T-A-N-O-O-G-A
High School!
Fight! Fight! Fight!

BIG DOG, LITTLE DOG

Big dog, little dog,
Flop-eared pup.
Come on High School,
Eat 'em up.

ALL HAIL TO C. H. S.

Then hail! all hail to C. H. S.
The school we love the best;
We'll sing out the story,
And we'll tell out the glory
Of the school that tops the rest.
Then hail! all hail to City High,
For her we live and die,
And we'll ever stand all ready to fight,
For our colors, Maroon and White.

SCORE OLD CITY, SCORE

We're here to see old City win
Score! old City, Score!
We're here to sing your praises
To help make ..... sore.
We're backing you for victory.
Fight, old City, Fight!
We'll snow old ..... under,
We'll win—Maroon and White.

ATHLETICS

Constantly associated with the South is the Southern darkey, the descendant of the old Negro mammies and plantation workers of days long past.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

Bob Simmons	President
Cleo Collins	Vice-President
Bud Thaxton	Secretary-Treasurer
Mr. Yarnell D. Barnes	Sponsor

The Lettermen's Club, composed of boys making their letters in football, basketball, baseball, and track, strove to bring better sportsmanship and intramural athletics to the student body. During the Boys' Home Room Tournament, the club achieved its goal as was shown by the exhibitions given by the individual homerooms. Other functions of the Lettermen throughout the year were Vodvil, the Lettermen-Faculty basketball game, the football-basketball banquet, and the Lettermen's picnic.

FOOTBALL

"Now forward we go to the fight"

With only five returning lettermen, Captain Whitehead, Rigsby, Bales, Thomas, and Ellis, the '37 edition of the Maroon and White gridiron warriors went through a most successful season, winning eight and losing one combat, that being to our arch rival, Central. Showing great spirit and ability, the team proved to be one the student body was proud of and supported enthusiastically.

Our first victory was over Polk County High School, the score being 6 to 0. Late in the second quarter, "Jumping Joe" Birchfield circled left end from the nine-yard line for the marker. Bales, McMahon, and Captain Whitehead excelled on defense.

City 7, South Pittsburgh 6 was the tune of our second struggle. The Maroons scored on the third play of the game but were unable to carry the pigskin across the goal again. The defensive play of Mattice and Leonard was outstanding.

Alternate-Captain Jimmie Rigsby intercepted an Etowah pass and ran seventy yards to the ten. On the next play he carried the ball across the pay bars. Thomas plowed through the opponents' line for the extra point. Final score—City, 7; Etowah, 0.

Coaches Farmer and Puckett.

"Watch that ball"

To end a McCallie downfield drive, Harry "the Horse" Blake galloped 91 yards with an intercepted pass to City—a 6 to 0 victory over McCallie. Bales, Thomas, and McMahon led the defense parade.

The Mauling Maroons tramped to Hueytown, Alabama, and defeated the strong Alabama team 7 to 6, showing much power both on defense and offense.

Having won all the previous games by one touchdown, the Maroons were a touchdown favorite over Notre Dame, but when the final whistle blew the "Third Streeters" were out in front 13 to 0. Little "Bob" Bales scored both touchdowns and may be called the hero if any one player might play that role.

The most impressive game of the season was that against Bradley County Bears. Taking the field as underdogs, our boys once more showed the "Maroon fight" being superior to Bradley by the 13 to 0 victory. It would be hard to pick any one player that stood out either on defense or offense.

Another year had rolled by and again it was time for the City-Central game, Chattanooga's greatest football classic. This year our team was less successful than the previous year, but every student was proud of the fighting spirit our boys showed, not letting up a single minute during the entire game.

Boys receiving letters were Captain Whitehead, Alternate-Captain Rigsby, Bagwell, Bales, Birchfield, Blake, Buchanan, Collins, Ellis, Fowler, McMahon, Norris, Smith, Thomas, Wiseman, Ziegler, Chambers, Eldridge, Stone, and Owen.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Miss Sadie Magill, Director

For the benefit of girls interested in sports, the Athletic Department offers various opportunities for enjoyment along that line. Under the guidance of Miss Sadie Magill, the gym instructor, and the gym captains activities are carried on.

There are two athletic clubs, one for junior girls and one for senior girls. At their respective meetings these athletes participate in interesting games, among which are basketball, volleyball, baseball, and soccer. The teams engage in tournaments in each of these sports, and they vie with each other for the championships.

The department also sponsors a basketball tournament among the homerooms, and the victorious team is presented with a cup.

This year La Fay Saulpaw's group won first place on Parents' Day as the best drilled class. With the crowning of the King and Queen on May Day, the department produced one of the most artistic productions of the year.

10. Shakespeare tryouts—don't look now but the bard just turned over!

11. Bart's uncle tells of conditions in Nazi Germany—some dirt, huh?

22. Springtime formally welcomed with a three-minute tragedy; this gives no inkling of the hourly romances which have evidenced its presence for some time.

29. Yours truly worries over this.

30. "Burr-head" Wooten elected as Salutatorian: What with Whittenburg as "Va'e, vale, vale", that chalks up two for the Garvin fifth-perioders.

APRIL—

1. Stunt Nite and April Fool's Day—that judgin' warn't no April Foolin', 'tho, ask the juniors.

3. Miss Garvin: You ought to read Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew.
Jo Terry: Well, who's the author?

11. Dear Editor: Many happy returns of the day. You need something in return.

14. Senior Day—"Seniors are such fools"—Yes, aren't we-uh-h-they?
Miss Wood: And who are you, Miss . . ?
Miss . . . . . (clad in flesh colored bathing suit and transparent rain cape): OH! don't mind me! I'm just an illustration from Esquire!
Rumored to be B—C, but actual name given on request.

19. Where's Charles Smith? What, doesn't anyone care?

21. Bankers' luncheon and chapel program—I believe Martha got stuck!!

22. The shrew is tamed. A swell "tame" was had by all. Wow, some pun, eh kid?

26. Student Councilors strut stuff—classy chapel program, "Snow White" loses prestige.

MAY—

1. May Day—the king and queen revealed, as if we didn't know!

6. Senior edition—wanna pay a quarter to see your name in print? Dirt daubin', eh what?
Junior play—a Wattsy, Wattsy Watts-affair, cast and produced and directed and a lot more things by Watts, aided by Wilkey.

13-15. Student Council house party—could they "stood it" so long?

25-27. More exams—"Why teachers get gray."

29. Baccalaureate—fashion parade (not a late Easter!)

31. Class Day—yours truly sees this in print.

JUNE—

1. Picnic—Seniors "Trukked" to Pan Gap and home.

2. Graduation—"I didn't know ye had it in ye!"
"Well, I'm glad to get it out!"

3. Gee! Ain't this week gone by in a hurry!"
